

plane-cut lobe (intended) cone anchored at O (what was built) unit sphere cut at $x = 0.5$: the cone has 1.600 times the volume and its centroid lies $0.1125R$ further in.

Both solids are watertight and both have exact volumes; only the predicate test distinguishes them.